CONSERVATION AND FREE ENTERPRISE

Over the past few decades, the American alligator has been facing the danger of extinction. We think that the end of any species of wildlife is a tragic loss and should be prevented at all cost.

There has been much talk, but little done to preserve the natural abundance of our nation. Today there is some hope for the whooping crane. With some luck the bald eagle - symbol of our country - will also be saved. We can be thankful that the bison is thriving under the protection of conservationists.

But, unfortunately, the lowly alligator doesn't lend himself to the eye of the amateur naturalist. He isn't graceful as is the crane. He doesn't soar majestically above the mountaintops as does the eagle. And he doesn't FIGHTING AND TALKING share the historic drama of the chase across the plains like the posthumous use of his hide.

TEACHER POWER

Teachers of the nation unite -- if not to lose your chains, at least to present a united front when requesting government funds, needed school reforms, and higher salaries. So goes the argument for unification of the two United Teachers - Los Angeles on Sunday Feb. 1.

In the past, relations between the two organizations members, the been conservance, professional, weathy, and state-oriented. The A.F.L. - C.I.O. - affiliated A.F.T., whose 175,000 members are centered in large northern cities, has long advocated collective bargaining and has sanctioned the strike weapon.

Since 1967, when N.E.A. rescinded its strike prohibition and demanded integration of its all-white chapters, cooperation between the two groups has grown. In September, both joined in a one-day teachers' strike in Los Angeles. In October, the first merger took place in Flint, Mich. Recently the two groups formed a powerful lobby for a costlier Health, Education and Welfare appropriations bill.

The A.F.T. favors immediate unification at the national level and N.E.A. prefers a piecemeal approach. But both predict that within ten years there will be one unified organization representing classroom teachers. This merger would give teachers the largest union in the world and an influential voice in the political process.

Diplomacy in Washington is vital and complex news, so we'd like you to meet The Associated Press specialists who cover this field for your newspaper. These highly experienced reporters know that diplomatic messages aren't restricted to conventional communications. They may be carried by a soft word buried in a strident speech, or blaze from guns fired in anger. Our specialists are constantly combing the field - the State Department, the embassies that dot the Washington landscape, the important conferences in this country and abroad - for stories that affect our lives and our well-being. Their reports appear in . . .

PUBLIC NOTICE

Subject: Selection of Nominees for Election to DAEOC Board of Directors.

The Delta Area Economic Opportunity Corporations has announced that a public meeting to select a nominee to represent their county on the DAEOC board of directors will be held on Monday, February 9, 1970 from 6:00 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. at the following Area Opportunity Centers:

Mississippi County

Scott City

Bell City

Gray Ridge

Stoddard County

The one nominee selected by each center will be that Center's candidate in the Board Elections to be held Monday, February 16, 1970 at the above mentioned Area

Those nominated from the election must be from the low- income group, or their selected representative, since he or she will be the DAEOC Board Representative of the poor for their particular county and must voice the problems of the poor to DAEOC in order to obtain programs to solve their problems through Community Action.

[Proud & Happy Driver]

IT'S SMART to be smart these days. And there's no faster or easier way for you to get smart than to come to LMU for your PHD.

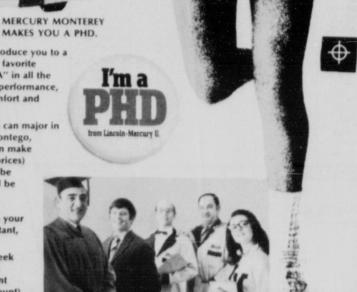

Imagine being a PHD (Proud and Happy Driver) he quick and easy way. Here at LMU the Professors (salesmen) will introduce you to a whole curriculum of cars (in your favorit school colors) that rate "straight A" in all the required subjects (safety, luxury, performance trunk space, power, interiors, comfort and driving ease).

There are six schools at LMU. You can major in Marquis, Monterey, Marauder, Montego, Cyclone, or Cougar. Every one can make you a PHD. And the tuition (car prices) was never more attractive. You'll be surprised how little it costs. You'll be surprised, too, how the coach (service manager) and his team (of mechanics) work hard to keep your car in top condition-very important, if you're going to be a PHD.

Make it your Homecoming this week on the LMU campus. Come on in and see the Professor about a grant (trade-in) and a scholarship (discount) Students (that's you) are always welcome. Transfer students (Buick, Olds, and Pontiac owners) are especially welcome.

a diligent Dean (dealer); a proud Professor (salesman a capable coach (service manager); a well-trained (of mechanics); and (in front), a cheerleader to take your phone calls. And it all adds up to bette service, a fine car, and an unbeatable deal.

Fashion Irends

PARIS (AP) - Rember the 'new look" of the late 1940s, the ankle-length skirts that swept the late Christian Dior to the top of the fashion world overnight? It's back.

For almost a quarter of century after Dior's hemline explosion, the trend was in the opposite direction, up and up, until skirts finally became little more than wide belts.

But now, the advance word from the Paris fashion shows sterting Monday is that Dior's long look, or something very much like it, is making a strong

The miniskirt has not yet been ousted, but the downward trend that began with maxicoats last year has spread to skirts in almost all the major spring-summer collections.

As yet there is no unanimity among the Paris designers. Some even say every girl should decide her hemline for herself, depending on her fancy, mood, silhouette, personality and the

Matthews School PTA Meets With Dr. R. Foster

The Sikeston Matthews Elementary School P.T.A. held its regular meeting Tuesday. The following were appointed by president C. D. Springs to serve as a nominating committee for new officers: Clyde Launius, Pat Lea, Evelyn Teachout, Evelyn Agnew and Brian Snider.

The program, "Preparing Your Child for His College Education" was presented by Dr. Robert Foster, assistant to the president of State College, Cape Girardeau. He stressed the importance of supporting the child, teachers and the school administration in all phases of education and school activities. Mrs. Matthews' and Mrs. Norton's fifth grade and Mrs. Cochran's fourth grade won attendance awards.

Refreshments were furnished by the fathers. Program for the next meeting will be presented
